2006 DRUG POLICY REFORM CONGRESSIONAL VOTER GUIDE

A SURVEY OF THE U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES ON DRUG POLICY REFORM A REPORT BY THE DRUG POLICY ALLIANCE NETWORK

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The core mission of the Drug Policy Alliance Network (DPAN), the nation's leading drug policy reform organization, is to advance those policies and attitudes that best reduce the harms of both drug abuse and the war on drugs, and to protect the sovereignty of individuals over their minds and bodies.

DPAN's federal vision includes cost-effective policies to protect public health, public safety, the public purse, federalism, and American values of liberty, equality and justice. Among DPAN's specific Congressional priorities are: removing barriers to substance abuse treatment; eliminating mandatory minimum sentencing; cutting wasteful drug war spending; prohibiting the federal government from undermining state medical marijuana laws; and implementing policies to reduce drug overdoses and the spread of HIV/AIDS and hepatitis.

Evaluation of U.S Representatives is based on several nonpartisan criteria. Most important to this survey was how they voted on the following six pieces of legislation:

1. House Vote 245 – Amendment to HR 2862 on Justice Assistance Grants: increasing funding to the corrupt and troubled Byrne Justice Assistance Grant program (DPAN opposed);
2. House Vote 255 – Amendment to HR 2862 on Medical Marijuana: prohibiting the DEA from undermining state medical marijuana laws (DPAN supported);
3. House Vote 264 – Amendment to HR 2862 on Racial Conviction Distribution: requiring local narcotics taskforces that receive federal money to ban racial profiling and report their convictions by race (DPAN supported);
4. House Vote 329 – Amendment to HR 3057 on the Andean Counterdrug Initiative: cutting funding to the counterproductive Andean Counterdrug Initiative (DPAN supported);
5. House Vote 344 – Amendment to HR 3058 on the National Youth Anti-Drug Campaign: increasing funding to the failed anti-marijuana media campaign (DPAN opposed); and
6. House Vote 435 – S 45: Drug Addiction Treatment: lifting the 30-patient limit on group practices for treating people who struggle with addiction to heroin and other opioids through buprenorphine-assisted approaches (DPAN supported).

Other factors were also considered in evaluating members of Congress, including their support for major drug policy reform legislation.

Highlights of the 2006 Drug Policy Reform Congressional Voter Guide:

- ✓ Perfect Scores: 33 Representatives voted the right way on all six amendments, receiving perfect scores.
- ✓ Five out of Six: 70 Representatives voted the right way on five of the amendments.
- ✓ Room for Hope: No Representative voted the wrong way on all six amendments.
- ✓ One out of Six: 69 Representatives voted the wrong way on five of the amendments.
- ✓ The Drug Policy Alliance's 2005 "Champion" was Rep. Sheila Jackson Lee (D-TX), the only member to vote the right way on all six of the floor amendments and to cosponsor all four of the major drug policy reform bills
- ✓ The Drug Policy Alliance Network's 2005 "Heroes" were Rep. John Conyers (D-MI), Rep. Sam Farr (D-CA), Rep. Jeff Flake (R-AZ), Rep. Barney Frank (D-MA), Rep. Alcee Hastings (D-FL), Rep. Maurice Hinchey (D-NY), Rep. Ron Paul (R-TX), Rep. Dana Rohrabacher (R-CA), and Rep. Bobby Scott (D-VA).
- ✓ The Drug Policy Alliance Network's 2005 "Villain" was Rep. James Sensenbrenner (R-WI).

About the Drug Policy Alliance Network

The Drug Policy Alliance Network is the leading organization in the United States promoting alternatives to the failed war on drugs. Headquartered in New York City, we also have offices in Los Angeles, Sacramento, San Francisco, Santa Fe, Trenton, and Washington, D.C. Our goal is to institute a new bottom line in America's approach to drugs – one that focuses on reducing the harms associated with both drug abuse and the war on drugs. We pursue this goal through lobbying policymakers, educating the public, organizing voters, and enacting reforms at the ballot box. More information on the Drug Policy Alliance Network can be found at www.drugpolicy.org.

About the 2006 Voter Guide

The 2006 Drug Policy Reform Congressional Voter Guide is designed to educate voters on which members of Congress are good on drug policy reform and which are not. It covers key drug-related votes from 2005, as well as support for major reform legislation in Congress.

The guide has a number of limitations, however. First, it only covers recorded votes from last year that every member of Congress had an opportunity to participate in. Since a lot of votes occur in committee or behind the scenes, many votes are excluded. (In particular, we have excluded committee votes on mandatory minimums and funding for drug treatment, because most members of Congress do not sit on the committees that voted on those issues.)

Secondly, because some bills never come up for a vote, we are limited to what Congress votes on. We have, however, included a helpful overview of the most important drug policy reform bills in Congress and who supports them.

Finally, this guide only covers U.S. Representatives because of the lack of meaningful drug-related floor votes in the Senate last year. An update of the guide, that will cover votes that occur in Congress in 2006, will be released later this year.

An electronic copy of this guide can be found at www.drugpolicy.org.

Introduction: A New Bottom Line for the War on Drugs

Despite spending hundreds of billions of dollars and incarcerating millions of Americans, illegal drugs remain cheap, potent and widely available in every community. Meanwhile, the harms associated with drug abuse – addiction, overdose and the spread of HIV/AIDS and hepatitis, to name just a few – continue to mount. Add to this record of failure the collateral damage of the war on drugs – broken families, racial disparities, wasted tax dollars, and the erosion of civil liberties – and it is easy to see why so many Americans are frustrated with our nation’s drug policies.

Federal policymakers need to adopt a new bottom line in the war on drugs – one that focuses policy decisions on the best way to reduce the harms associated with drug abuse, while ensuring that the policies themselves do not exacerbate the harms or create new social problems of their own. The optimal drug policy, of course, would be the one that best reduces both the harms associated with drug abuse and the harms associated with the war on drugs.

A good drug policy should reduce both drug addiction and racial disparities in the criminal justice system. It should keep our streets safe and families together. Reduce drug overdoses and wasteful government spending. Protect our kids and the Bill of Rights.

Members of Congress should be judged on their willingness to support this new bottom line. Are they working to reduce drug addiction, overdoses, and the spread of HIV/AIDS and hepatitis? Are they also working to reduce racial disparities, civil rights abuses, government waste, and the number of nonviolent prisoners behind bars?

The 2006 Drug Policy Reform Congressional Voter Guide is a nonpartisan tool for gauging members of Congress on their commitment to reforming failed U.S. drug policies. It covers key drug policy votes and related legislation in the U.S. House of Representatives during 2005.

Background on Key 2005 House Votes

House Vote 245 – Amendment to HR 2862 on Justice Assistance Grants

Sponsored by Rep. Terry (R-NE), this amendment would have increased funding for Byrne Justice Assistance Grants by $286 million. (It would have offset this spending increase with a 0.448 percent across-the-board cut in discretionary spending.) The Drug Policy Alliance Network opposed the amendment because the Byrne program, which provides law enforcement grants to states, perpetuates racial disparities, police corruption and over-incarceration. And until states are forced to pay the full cost of their draconian criminal justice policies they will never have to consider reforms.

The amendment was rejected, 175-252.

[DPA Network: Vote NO]

House Vote 255 – Amendment to HR 2862 on Medical Marijuana

Sponsored by Rep. Hinchey (D-NY), Rep. Rohrabacher (R-CA), Rep. Farr (D-CA), and Rep. Paul (R-TX), this amendment would have prohibited the U.S. Department of Justice from spending any money on undermining state medical marijuana laws. The Drug Policy Alliance Network supported the amendment because marijuana should be made available for medical use and the federal government should stop wasting resources arresting patients and their caregivers.

The amendment was rejected, 161-264.

[DPA Network: Vote YES]

House Vote 264 – Amendment to HR 2862 on Racial Conviction Distribution

Sponsored by Rep. Jackson Lee (D-Texas), this amendment would have prohibited federal law enforcement grants from going to local or state narcotics taskforces that do not ban racial profiling or track statistics on the racial distribution of drug convictions. The Drug Policy Alliance Network supported the amendment because we oppose racial profiling and support efforts to eliminate civil rights abuses in the war on drugs.

The amendment was rejected, 183-244.

[DPA Network: Vote YES]

House Vote 329 – Amendment to HR 3057 on the Andean Counterdrug Initiative

Sponsored by Rep. McGovern (D-MA), this amendment would have cut funding to the Andean Counterdrug Initiative (A.K.A. “Plan Colombia”) by $100 million. The Drug Policy Alliance Network supported the amendment because the Andean Counterdrug Initiative is doing more harm than good and is wasting taxpayer money.

The amendment was rejected, 189-234.

[DPA Network: Vote YES]

House Vote 344 – Amendment to HR 3058 on the National Youth Anti-Drug Campaign

Sponsored by Rep. Souder (R-IN), this amendment increased funding for taxpayer-subsidized anti-marijuana print and TV ads by $25 million. (This increase was offset by a decrease in the General Services Administration Federal Buildings Fund.) The Drug Policy Alliance Network opposed this amendment because the National Youth Anti-Drug Media Campaign has had no impact on youth drug use rates and is wasting scarce resources that could be used on effective prevention programs.

The amendment was adopted, 268-151.

[DPA Network: Vote NO]

House Vote 435 – S 45: Drug Addiction Treatment

Sponsored by Senator Levin (D-MI), S. 45 repealed a senseless regulation that made it difficult for doctors to treat drug addiction. The bill lifted the 30-patient limit on group practices for treating people who struggle with drug abuse with certain narcotic drugs, like buprenorphine, in a maintenance or detoxification-treatment program. After passing the Senate, it unanimously passed the House. Rep. Mark Souder (R-IN) was the sponsor of the House version of the bill. The Drug Policy Alliance Network supported both the House and Senate bills.

The amendment was adopted unanimously.

[DPA Network: Vote YES]

Drug Policy Reform Bills in Congress

A number of good drug policy reform bills were introduced in 2005 that have not come up for a vote. Four stand out:

❖ H.R. 1184 – The RISE Act

Sponsored by Rep. Barney Frank (D-MA), this bill would repeal the section of the Higher Education Act that prohibits people convicted of drug offenses from receiving student financial assistance.

❖ H.R. 2087 – States’ Rights to Medical Marijuana Act

Sponsored by Rep. Barney Frank (D-MA), this bill would reclassify marijuana as a Schedule II drug, allowing states to enact medical marijuana laws without federal interference.

❖ H.R. 2620 – No More Tulias: Drug Law Enforcement Evidentiary Standards Improvement Act

Sponsored by Rep. Sheila Jackson Lee (D-TX), this bill would prohibit states from using federal Byrne grants to fund regional narcotics taskforces, unless they pass laws preventing people from being convicted of drug offenses based solely on the uncorroborated allegations of one undercover officer or informant.

❖ H.R. 4213 – Elimination of Barriers for Katrina Victims Act

Sponsored by Rep. Bobby Scott (D-VA), this bill would temporarily suspend the application of laws that deny certain federal benefits, entitlements and grants to victims of Hurricane Katrina and Rita due to drug convictions.

Another good drug policy reform bill, the Steve McWilliams Truth in Trials Act (H.R. 4272), was introduced late last year. Since few members have had time to cosponsor it yet, we have not included it in this guide.

A complete list of Representatives who are cosponsoring one or more of the four bills can be found on page 32. It should be noted that just because a Representative is not a cosponsor of a bill does not mean that the Representative does not support the bill. It is possible that no one has asked the Representative to cosponsor it yet.

Only two Representatives are sponsors or cosponsors of all four bills: Rep. John Conyers (D-MI) and Rep. Sheila Jackson-Lee (D-TX). Rep. Jackson Lee also voted the right way on all six amendments on the House floor, giving her a perfect score in both areas.

Seven Representatives are cosponsors of three of the drug policy reform bills: Rep. Carson (D-IN), Rep. Green (D-TX), Rep. Hastings (D-FL), Rep. Lee (D-CA), Rep. Rangel (D-NY), Rep. Schakowsky (D-IL), and Rep. Woolsey (D-CA).

Heroes in the House of Representatives

While there were many drug policy reform heroes in Congress in 2005, ten stand out:

The 2005 Champion

Congresswoman Sheila Jackson Lee (D-18th/TX)

Rep. Jackson Lee is the only member of Congress to vote the right way on all six floor amendments and cosponsor all four important drug policy reform bills. She is the lead sponsor of the No More Tulas Act (HR2620), which would reign in out-of-control regional narcotics taskforces and protect civil rights.

The 2005 Heroes

Congressman John Conyers (D-14th/MI)

Next to Rep. Jackson Lee, Rep. Conyers is the only other member of Congress to be a cosponsor of all four drug policy reform bills. He also voted the right way on four of the floor amendments (missing a vote on one amendment and voting the wrong way on the amendment to increase funding for the government's anti-marijuana media campaign), scoring 67 percent. Along with Rep. Scott, Rep. Conyers led the fight to remove mandatory minimums from numerous bills last year.

Congressman Sam Farr (D-17th/CA)

Rep. Farr was a cosponsor of the medical marijuana floor amendment. Overall, he voted the right way on five of the amendments (he voted to increase funding to the anti-marijuana ad campaign). He is also a cosponsor of the States' Rights to Medical Marijuana Act (HR 2087) and the RISE Act (HR 1184).

Congressman Jeff Flake (R-6th/AZ)

Rep. Flake voted the right way on five amendments (he voted against the racial profiling amendment). He has yet to cosponsor an important drug policy reform bill but has been a champion of fiscal responsibility on the House Judiciary Committee, arguing there should be fewer federal crimes.

Congressman Barney Frank (D-14th/MA)

Rep. Frank is the lead sponsor of two important drug policy reform bills, the States' Rights to Medical Marijuana Act (HR 2087) and the RISE Act (HR 1184). He also voted the right way on five of the floor amendments, scoring 83 percent (he voted against the amendment to cut funding to the Andean Counterdrug Initiative).

Congressman Alcee Hastings (D-23rd/FL)

Rep. Hastings has not traditionally been viewed as a major drug policy reformer, but his record in 2005 is clear. He voted the right way on all six floor amendments. He is also a sponsor of three of the reform bills.

Congressman Maurice Hinchey (D-22nd/NY)

Rep. Hinchey was the lead sponsor of the medical marijuana floor amendment. He is also a cosponsor of the States' Rights to Medical Marijuana Act (HR 2087) and the RISE Act (HR 1184). Overall, he voted the right way on four out of six of the floor amendments (he voted in favor of increasing funding to both the Byrne grant program and the anti-marijuana ad campaign).

Congressman Ron Paul (R-14th/TX)

Rep. Paul voted the right way on all six floor amendments. He was a cosponsor of one of them (the medical marijuana amendment). He is also a cosponsor of two important bills, the States' Rights to Medical Marijuana Act (HR 2087) and the Elimination of Barriers for Katrina Victims Act (HR 4213). Additionally, he is one of most outspoken critics of the federal war on drugs.

Congressman Dana Rohrabacher (R-46th/CA)

Rep. Rohrabacher was a lead sponsor of the medical marijuana floor amendment. Overall, he voted the right way on five of the amendments, scoring 83 percent (he voted against the racial profiling amendment). He is also a cosponsor of the States' Right to Medical Marijuana Act (HR 2087).

Congressman Bobby Scott (D-3rd/VA)

Rep. Scott voted the right way on all six floor amendments. He is also the lead sponsor of the Elimination of Barriers for Katrina Victims Act (HR 4213). Along with Rep. Conyers, he also led the fight to remove mandatory minimums from numerous bills last year. He is also a cosponsor of the RISE Act (HR 1184).

Honorable Mentions

The following eight Representatives deserve special recognition. They voted the right way on all six amendments and are sponsors of least two reform bills.

- Rep. Earl Blumenauer (D-3rd/OR) (Blumenauer missed the vote on S. 45, but almost certainly would have voted the right way on it).
- Rep. Dennis Kucinich (D-10th/OH)
- Rep. John Olver (D-1st/MA)
- Rep. James McGovern (D-3rd/MA)
- Rep. George Miller (D-7th/CA)
- Rep. Martin Olav Sabo (D-5th/MN)
- Rep. Linda Sanchez (D-39th/CA)
- Rep. John Tierney (D-6th/MA)
- Rep. Diane Watson (D-33/CA)

The following six representatives voted the right way on five of the amendments and are cosponsors of at least three pieces of drug policy reform legislation:

- Rep. Julia Carson (D-7th/IN)
- Rep. Al Green (D-9th/TX)
- Rep. Barbara Lee (D-9th/CA)
- Rep. Charles Rangel (D-15th/NY)
- Rep. Janice Schakowsky (D-9th/IL)
- Rep. Lynn Woolsey (D-6th/CA)

The 2005 Badge of Shame

Congressman James Sensenbrenner (R-5th/WI) was unquestionably 2005's biggest drug war villain.

As chair of the House Judiciary Committee, Rep. Sensenbrenner works to pass bad legislation almost every year. But, in 2005 he introduced one of the most draconian and foolish drug war bills ever introduced in congress – the Defending America's Most Vulnerable Act (H.R. 1528).

Despite its name, HR 1528 would have actually incarcerated America's most vulnerable. Among other things his bill would have required Americans to report their loved ones to the police within 24 hours if they committed certain drug offenses; virtually eliminated the ability of federal judges to give sentences below the minimum sentence recommended by federal sentencing guidelines (essentially creating a mandatory minimum sentence for every federal offense); and established new draconian penalties for a variety of low-level, nonviolent drug offenses.

Fortunately, the bill has stalled in Congress.

How Your Representative Voted

Interesting Highlights:

- Out of 435 U.S. Representatives, 33 voted the right way on all six amendments, earning a perfect score.
- Seventy Representatives voted the right way on five of the amendments.
- No Representative voted the wrong way on all six amendments.
- Sixty-nine Representatives voted the wrong way on five amendments.

Vote Key:

+ Member's yea/nay vote agrees with the Alliance's position	- Member's yea/nay vote disagrees with the Alliance's position
(+) Member's announced/paired position agrees with the Alliance's position	(-) Member's announced/paired position disagrees with the Alliance's position
X Member did not cast a yea/nay vote or officially declare a position	AL At-large, used for states without Congressional districts

The % Voted Right Way column is the percentage of time the Representative voted the right way, based on votes on the five amendments. Missing a vote counts against the Representative. For instance, someone who voted the right way on five amendments but missed a vote on the sixth amendment would receive 83 percent.

The Agreed/Cast column is the number of times the Representative voted the right way compared with the number of amendments they voted on.
